

Summary

Preface

Introduction

1. Japan's Demographic Collapse and the Vanishing Provinces
  2. Monetary and Fiscal Policies During the Lost Decades • Kenneth Kuttner, Iwaisako Tokuo & Adam Posen
  3. The Two "Lost Decades" and Macroeconomics: Changing Economic Policies • Kobayashi Keiichirō
  4. The Curse of "Japan, Inc." and Japan's Microeconomic Competitiveness • Toyama Kazuhiko
  5. Making Sense of the Lost Decades: Workplaces and Schools, Men and Women, Young and Old, Rich and Poor • Andrew Gordon
  6. The Two Lost Decades in Education: The Failure of Reform • Kariya Takehiko
  7. The Fukushima Nuclear Accident: Lost Opportunities and the "Safety Myth" • Kitazawa Koichi
  8. The Last Two Decades in Japanese Politics: Lost Opportunities and Undesirable Outcomes • Machidori Satoshi
  9. The Gulf War and Japan's National Security Identity • Michael J. Green and Igata Akira
  10. Foreign Economic Policy Strategies and Economic Performance • Peter Drysdale & Shiro Armstrong
  11. Japan's Asia / Asia-Pacific Policy in Flux • Shiraishi
  12. Okinawa Bases and the U.S.-Japan Alliance • Sheila A. Smith
  13. Japanese Historical Memory • Tōgo Kazuhiko
  14. Japan's Failed Bid for a Permanent Seat on the UN Security Council • Akiyama Nobumasa
  15. The Stakeholder State: Ideology and Values in Japan's Search for a Post-Cold War Global Role • G. John Ikenberry
- Conclusion: Something has been "Lost" from our Future • Funabashi Yoichi

Index