

Summary

Introduction: Theorizing Japanese diaspora

Part I

Origins of the Japanese Diaspora

1. The Japanese Diaspora in the New World: Its Asian Predecessors and Origins

Roger Daniels

2. Japanese Emigration and Immigration: From the Meiji to the Modern
James Stanlaw

3. Instructions to Emigrant Laborers, 1885-1894: "Return in Triumph" or
"Wander on the Verge of Starvation"

Jonathan Dresner

Part II:

Cultural Identity: From the Incipient Diaspora to Classic Diaspora

4. Paradise Lost: Japan's Agricultural Colonists in Manchukuo

Greg Guelcher

5. The Inter-married Issei and Mestizo Nisei in the Philippines:
Reflections on the Origin of Philippine Nikkeijin Problems

Shun Ohno

6. Constructing Japanese Brazilian Identity: From Agrarian Migrants to Urban White Collar Workers

Nobuko Adachi

7. A Stone Voice: The Diary of a Japanese Transnational Migrant in Canada

Keibo Oiwa

8. The Japanese of Peru: The First Century Experience and Beyond
Daniel Masterson

9. Japanese Latin Americans During World War II: A Reconsideration
Lane Hirabayashi & Akemi Kikumura-Yano

Part III

Constructing Identities in the Okinawan, Nikkei, and Permanent Resident Diasporas

10. Four Governments and a New Land: Emigration to Bolivia

Kozy Amemiya

11. Acting Japanese

Gary Okihiro

12. Crossing Ethnic Boundaries: The Challenge of Brazilian Nikkeijin
Return Migrants in Japan

Takeyuki “Gaku” Tsuda

13. Overseas Japanese and the Challenges of Repatriation in Post-
Colonial East Asia

Mariko Asano Tamanoi

14. Negotiating Work and Self: Experiences of Japanese Working Women in Singapore – Leng Leng Thang, Miho Goda & Elizabeth MacLachlan

References

Index