

Summary

List of Figures; List of Tables; Abbreviations; A Note on Conventions; Acknowledgments

Introduction

PART I : Contours of Japan's Financial Policy Networks

1. Networks and State Performance
2. Finance Ministry Ties with the Political Arena
3. Finance Ministry Ties with Private and Quasi-governmental Financial Institutions
4. Finance Ministry Ties with Other Government Agencies and the Central Bank

PART II : Evolution of Network-based Regulation

5. Institutional "Fit" for Rapid Growth
6. Slowed Growth, Institutional Rigidity, and Reforms Postponed
7. Network-managed Forbearance after the "Bubble" Bursts
8. Policy Paralysis amid Deepening Crisis

PART III : Institutional Change and System Transition

9. A New Regulatory and Policymaking Paradigm
10. Why Can't Japan Get Back on Track?
11. Conclusion

Annexes et références

Appendices

Notes

Bibliography

Index