

Sommaire

Preface

Acknowledgments

Part I Contents

1. Peace and Democracy in Two Systems: External Policy and Internal Conflict
2. Japan's Position in the World System

Bruce Cumings

3. The Past in the Present

Carol Gluck

Part II Political Economy

4. Defining Growth: Debates on Economic Strategies

Laura E. Hein

5. The Structure and Transformation of Conservative Rule

Gary D. Allinson

6. Negotiating Social Contracts

Sheldon Garon and Mike Mochizuki

7. Dialectics of Economic Growth, National Power, and Distributive Struggles

Koji Taira

Part III Mass culture and metropolitan society

8. Finding a Place in Metropolitan Japan: Transpositions of Everyday Life

William W. Kelly

9. Formations of Mass Culture

Marilyn Ivy

10. Consuming and Saving

Charles Yuji Horioka

11. The Death of "Good Wife, Wise Mother"

Kathleen S. Uno

12. Unplaced Persons and Movements for Place

Frank K. Upham

13. Altered States: The Body Politics of "Being Woman"

Sandra Buckley

Part IV Democratic Promise and Practice

14. Contests for the Workplace

Andrew Gordon

15. Intellectuals and Politics

J. Victor Koschmann

16. The Dynamics of Political Opposition

James W. White

Contributors

Index