

summary

Introduction

Revisiting Postwar Japan — Christopher Gerteis & Timothy S. George

Partie I : Civic Imaginations

1. The Art of Bourgeois Culture in Kamakura — Laura E. Hein

2. Furusato-zukuri: Saving Home Towns by Reinventing Them

Timothy S. George

3. Searching for Furusato History in Kaminoseki

Martin

Partie II : Legacies of War and Occupation

4. Dreaming Ryukyu: Shifting and Contesting Identities in Okinawa

David Tobaru Obermiller

5. Beyond Black Market: Neighborhood Associations and Food Rationing in Postwar Japan

Katarzyna Cwiertka

6. Nurses in Postwar Japan

Sally A. Hastings

7. Japan's Other Forgotten Soldiers

Tetsuya Fujiwara

Partie III : State Policy for a Late-Capitalist Society

8. The Post-Industrialization of the Developmental State

Lonny E. Carlile

9. Reassessing Japan's Big Bang: Twenty Years of Financial Regulatory Reform

Bruce Aronson

10. Endless Modernization: Japan's Postwar History of Fisheries Policy and Development

Satsuki Takahashi

Partie IV : Looking Out, Looking Back

11. Lofty Dreams: Pan American World Airways and Its Defining Presence in Postwar Japan
Christine Yano

12. Marketing History as Social Responsibility

Christopher Gerteis

13. Memorializing the Spirit of Wit and Grit in Postindustrial Japan

Hiraku Shimoda

Conclusion

Concluding reflections

Stephen Vlastos