

Summary

List of figures

List of tables

Contributors

PART I

Introduction

1. After the Banquet: New inequalities and their perception in Japan since the 1990s

David Chiavacci & Carola Hommerich

PART II

Creation of Inequality and Its Perception in Japan

2. Institutions and Actors in the Creation of Social Inequality: A Rational Choice Approach

Yoshimichi Sato

3. The Gap as Threat: Status Anxiety in the 'Middle'

Carola Hommerich

PART III

Labour Market and Employment System

4. The "Re-segmentation" of the Japanese Labour Market: Investigating the Impact of Industrial Dynamics

Sébastien Lechevalier

5. Does Employment Dualisation Lead to Political Polarisation? Assessing the Impact of Labour Market Inequalities on Political Discourse in Japan

Steffen Heinrich

6. Are Labour Union Movements Capable of Solving the Problems of the 'Gap Society'?

Jun Imai

PART IV

Welfare State and Family

7. Economic Inequality among Families with Small Children in Japan: Who Provides Welfare to Children?

Sawako Shirahase

8. Social Policy Responses to the 'Gap Society': The Structural Limitations of the Japanese Welfare State and Related Official Discourses since the 1990s

Harald Conrad

9. The Old and New Welfare Politics in Japan: Persisting Obstacles for Reform

Margarita Estévez-Abe

PART V

Education and Social Mobility

10. Understanding Structural Changes in Inequality in Japanese Education: From Selection to Choice

Takehiko Kariya

11. Political Discourse and Education Reforms concerning "Equality of Educational Opportunity"
12. Akito Okada
13. Trying to Reduce Inequalities in School: The Academic Discourse and the Concept of 'Effective Schools'
14. Julia Canstein

PART VI

Urban-Rural Divide

13. The Urban-Rural Divide in Japan: A Matter of Social Inequality?

Ralph Lützel

15. The Public and Political Discourse on Socio-Spatial Inequality in Japan

Volker Elis

16. Understanding the Dynamics of Regional Growth and Shrinkage in 21st-Century Japan: Towards the Achievement of an Asia-Pacific 'Depopulation Dividend'

Peter Matanle

PART VII

New Immigration and Ethnic Minorities

17. Migration and Integration Patterns of New Immigrants in Japan: Diverse Structures of Inequality

David Chiavacci

18. The “Multicultural Coexistence” Discourse in Crisis? Public Discourse on Immigrant Integration in the Gap

Takashi Kibe

19. Understanding the Gaps Between Immigrant Economic Outcomes: Strategic Action and Meaning Making among Newcomer Immigrants in Japan

Gracia Liu-Farrer

PART VIII

Conclusion

20. Reassembling the Pieces: The Big Picture of Inequality in Japan

David Chiavacci & Carola Hommerich

Index